Editor's Swan Song

Well, we're finished. Actually, it doesn't seem that long since we received the "go ahead" sign from the principal to begin work on the Yearbook. Several months of whirlwind activity followed and you have just read the result. What do you think of it?

We were unable to include an account of the Blossom Queen Dance as all Yearbook material was sent to the publisher before the Easter exams, but otherwise, I think we have a fairly complete account of our school activities in 59-60.

It was a pleasure working with the Yearbook staff and I would like to thank them for their valuable service. They assisted departments other than their own, rewrote reams of copy without complaint and gave up countless noon-hours to checking those last minute details that arrive with every deadline. Ann Knights was our "tireless typer" and although she was not a member of the regular staff, she typed most of the Yearbook material.

To Mr. Mummery, our very tolerant staff advisor, I would like to say, "Thank you" on behalf of the Gradatim staff, for spending so much time on this project.
